Responsibilities of Membership

WDSC is a volunteer-run, not-for-profit organization. We are held to the Society Act of British Columbia, our own bylaws and the policies and expectations of both Swimming Canada and Swim BC. We cannot run a successful club without every parent understanding their rights and responsibilities in becoming a member of the WDSC. Please familiarize yourself with our club policies and bylaws, both posted within the Club Handbook and on the website.

When becoming a member of the WDSC, you are committing to your membership within the community that contains both rights and responsibilities. You will be asked during registration to acknowledge that you have read and understood the Club Handbook and all associated documents.

Important Information About Volunteer Commitments

Hours required vary based on the group as outlined in the table below. Here's some additional information on the requirements:

- For families that have two or more swimmers registered, they are required to fulfill the higher requirement. For example, if one group requires 25 points and the other 18, the required points are 25.
- Swimmers that register prior to December 1, 2025 and are still registered as of January 1, 2026 are required to fulfill all volunteer requirements regardless of end date. No exceptions will be made to this policy.
- Swimmers that register after December 15, 2025 are required to fulfill 50% of the volunteer requirements regardless of registration date or end date (after 30 days of membership). No exceptions will be made to this policy.
- Swimmers who withdraw within 30 days of registration will not be held accountable for volunteer commitments.
- Different activities achieve different points and all completed activities must be logged on the website within 72 hours of completion of the activity.
- Any family that achieves less than the required points between September 1, 2025 and April 30, 2026 will be charged $15/point outstanding to their account to a maximum of $300. No exceptions will be made to this policy.
