Submitting an Appeal

Appeals of decisions made by the WDSC to be addressed pursuant to this Policy. Alternatively, the WDSC may ask Swim BC to hear appeals of the WDSC's decisions at its discretion.

Grounds for Appeal

A decision cannot be appealed on its merits alone. An appeal may only be heard if there are sufficient grounds for appeal. Sufficient grounds include that the Respondent:

1. Made a decision that it did not have the authority or jurisdiction (as set out in the Respondent's governing documents) to make
2. Failed to follow its own procedures (as set out in the Respondent's governing documents)
3. Made a decision that was influenced by bias (where bias is defined as a lack of neutrality to such an extent that the decision-maker appears not to have considered other views)
4. Made a decision that was patently unreasonable

Screening of Appeal

1. The parties may first attempt to resolve the appeal through the Alternative Dispute Resolution Policy.
2. Appeals resolved under the Alternative Dispute Resolution Policy will result in the administration fee being refunded to the Appellant.
3. Should the appeal not be resolved by using the Alternative Dispute Resolution Policy, the WDSC will appoint an independent Appeal Manager (who must not be in a conflict of interest or have any direct relationship with the parties) who has the following responsibilities:
 - a. To determine if the appeal falls under the scope of this Policy
 - b. To determine if the appeal was submitted in a timely manner
 - c. To decide whether there are sufficient grounds for the appeal
4. If the Appeal Manager denies the appeal on the basis of insufficient grounds, because it was not submitted in a timely manner, or because it did not fall under the scope of this Policy, the Appellant will be notified, in writing, of the reasons for this decision. This decision may not be appealed and the administration fee will not be refunded.
5. If the Appeal Manager is satisfied there are sufficient grounds for an appeal, the Appeal Manager will appoint an Appeal Panel which shall consist of a single Arbitrator, to hear the appeal. In extraordinary circumstances, and at the discretion of the Appeal Manager, an Appeal Panel composed of three persons may be appointed to hear the appeal. In this event, the Appeal Manager will appoint one of the Panel's members to serve as the Chair.

Determination of Affected Parties

In order to confirm the identification of any Affected Parties, the Appeal Manager will engage the WDSC. The Appeal Manager may determine whether a party is an Affected Party in their sole discretion.

Procedure for Appeal Hearing

1. The Appeal Manager shall notify the Parties that the appeal will be heard. The Appeal Manager shall then decide the format under which the appeal will be heard. This decision is at the sole discretion of the Appeal Manager and may not be appealed.
2. If a party chooses not to participate in the hearing, the hearing will proceed in any event.
3. The format of the hearing may involve an oral in-person hearing, an oral hearing by telephone or other electronic means, a hearing based on a review of documentary evidence submitted in advance of the hearing, or a combination of these methods. The hearing will be governed by the procedures that the Appeal Manager and the Panel deem appropriate in the circumstances. The following guidelines will apply to the hearing:
 - a. The hearing will be held within a reasonable timeline determined by the Appeal Manager
 - b. The Parties will be given reasonable notice of the day, time and place of an oral in-person hearing or oral hearing by telephone or electronic communications.
 - c. Copies of any written documents which any of the Parties wishes to have the Panel consider will be provided to all Parties in advance of the hearing
 - d. The Parties may be accompanied by a representative, advisor, or legal counsel at their own expense
 - e. The Panel may request that any other individual participate and give evidence at an oral in-person hearing or oral hearing by telephone or electronic communications.
 - f. The Panel may allow as evidence at the hearing any oral evidence and document or thing relevant to the subject matter of the appeal, but may exclude such evidence that is unduly repetitious and shall place such weight on the evidence as it deems appropriate

- g. If a decision in the appeal may affect another party to the extent that the other party would have recourse to an appeal in their own right under this Policy, that party will become an Affected Party to the appeal in question and will be bound by its outcome
 - h. The decision to uphold or reject the appeal will be by a majority vote of Panel members
4. In fulfilling its duties, the Panel may obtain independent advice.

Appeal Decision

1. The Appellant must demonstrate, on a balance of probabilities, that the Respondent has made a procedural error as described in the Grounds for Appeal section of this Policy and that this error had, or may reasonably have had, a material effect on the decision or decision-maker.
2. The Panel shall issue its decision, in writing and with reasons, within seven (7) days after the hearing's conclusion. In making its decision, the Panel will have no greater authority than that of the original decision-maker. The Panel may decide to:
 - a. Reject the appeal and confirm the decision being appealed
 - b. Uphold the appeal and refer the matter back to the initial decision-maker for a new decision, or
 - c. Uphold the appeal and vary the decision.
3. The Panel will also determine whether costs of the appeal, excluding legal fees and legal disbursements of any parties, will be assessed against any party. In assessing costs, the Panel will take into account the outcome of the appeal, the conduct of the parties, and the parties' respective financial resources.
4. The Panel's written decision, with reasons, will be distributed to all parties, the Appeal Manager, and the WDSC. In extraordinary circumstances, the Panel may first issue a verbal or summary decision soon after the hearing's conclusion, with the full written decision to be issued thereafter. The decision will be considered a matter of public record unless decided otherwise by the Panel.

Timelines

If the circumstances of the appeal are such that adhering to the timelines outlined by this Policy will not allow a timely resolution to the appeal, the Appeal Manager and/or Panel may direct that these timelines be revised.

Confidentiality

The appeals process is confidential and involves only the parties, the Appeal Manager, the Panel, and any independent advisors to the Panel. Once initiated and until a decision is released, none of the Parties will disclose confidential information to any person not involved in the proceedings.

Final and Binding

No action or legal proceeding will be commenced against the WDSC or Participants in respect of a dispute, unless the WDSC has refused or failed to provide or abide by the dispute resolution process and/or appeal process as set out in governing documents.
